

Do You Want To Be A Beekeeper

Have you thought about learning a new hobby?

Join us for your first look into to a very fun and interesting hobby.

This is a FREE look into the world of BEEKEEPING, just to get your toes wet.

Location: Franklin County Farm Bureau, 185 Franklin Farm Lane, Chambersburg 17202

Date & Time: October 3rd /6:30 pm

Purpose: Discuss the equipment needs, location requirements and amount of time needed to successfully keep honeybees.

Focus: Expected costs, time and possible expected outcomes.

1. Reasons to keep bees
2. Woodenware – types and cost
3. Tools & protection – types and cost
4. Bee yard needs – location and setup. Neighbors, fence, water, legal
5. Buying bees – packages & nucs.
6. Feeding and treating – what's involved
7. Extracting honey – equipment and supplies
8. Managing your bees – what's involved
9. Expected outcomes – honey production, loss of colonies, splits
10. Learn how sign up for our short course beekeeper education

PLEASE join us OCTOBER 3rd 2019

Make some new friends

